

POLAND

The Polish Community of Western Australia

The 2006 Census reflects the following demographics:

- There were 5,725 Poland-born people living in WA and 52,256 people living in Australia.
- There were 17,587 persons who indicated they had a Polish ancestry living in WA and 163,802 in Australia.
- There were 6,102 persons living in WA and 53,389 in Australia who speak Polish.

Trade Relationship

Trade Relationship 2008/2009	A$m
WA Exports	$ 4.3
WA Imports	$24.2
WA Total Trade (exports and imports)	$32.6
Trade Ranking 2008/2009
WA Exports	84
WA Imports	48
Total Ranking	64

Polish Community Council of WA Inc

- Various Polish organisations belonging to the Council offer their members activities to help them preserve the Polish language and culture, as well as services to help them become active members of Western Australia society.

Contact: Mrs Halina Szunejko OAM, President
33 Eighth Avenue, Maylands WA 6051

Phone: 9271 2036 / Fax: 9271 0917 / Email: rainbow1@iinet.net.au

Australia Poland Business Council Inc.

- The Australia Poland Business Council Inc. (APBC) is a wholly Australian, independent, non-profit, voluntary organisation established in 1991 for the purpose of promoting, expanding and consolidating bilateral and multilateral trade and all aspects of economic, commercial and cultural relations between Australia and Poland.

Contact: Mr Józef Drewniak, President
1 Ijong Street, Braddon ACT 2612,

Tel: (02) 6249 6128 / Fax (02) 6257 6608 / Email: apbci@tpg.com.au

Consulate-General of the Republic of Poland

- Mr Ryszard Sarkowicz, Consul General
10 Trelawney Street

Level 21, Forrest Centre, Woollahra, NSW 2025

Tel: (02) 9363 9816 / Fax: (02) 9327 2216

Email: consulate@poland.org.au / Website: <http://www.sydney.polemb.net>

Source: Statistics from the 2006 Census

Trade Information: Department of State Development