

City of Stirling and Half the Sky

invite you to join our THINK IN on Saturday 19th June

What would you like to see in a brand new FESTIVAL OF WOMEN?

A joyous celebration of women, a festival for everyone of all ages and abilities, from all walks of life and all cultures, a festival of music, art, performance, food and ideas. Celebrating the ordinary and extraordinary.

We want to know what you'd like to see in a Festival of Women

We begin our festival journey with a series of discussions, conversations and sharing of dreams. We'll introduce our ideas, hear inspiring stories from women in your community, and explore the ideas and issues that matter to you. The event will be relaxed, informal and friendly - you may want to share ideas with everyone - or simply listen. We welcome all kinds of participation.
